

Details: costume. It is a professional ballet costume with a slightly dropped skirt in French style. The bodice and the overlay are made of the dense printed fabric. The decorative deep inset on the bodice is made of a monochromatic fabric and is richly embroidered with applications, braid, crystals, sparkles and glass beads. The lacy strap ruffles highlight the individuality of this costume. The bodice has two rows of hooks and an inner cord to tighten the bodice at the chest level. The openwork appliques in the shape of antique monograms, braid, sequins, crystals, and beads are used to create an exquisite patterned composition on the bodice and on the upper layer of the skirt. All these decorative elements impart a magnificent festive look to the costume. This costume can be used in "Sleeping Beauty", "The Festival of Flowers in Cinzano" ballets, in the concert performance Grand Pas Classique and in other ballet variations.
